WHAT WE LOVE ABOUT KUBA

Striking in its architectural form, the Kuba floating sink collection is handcrafted from natural materials at the mudd. concrete workshop in Canada by artisans with a passion for both concrete and good design. This compact, wall-mounted basin transforms a traditionally utilitarian material into a sculptural centerpiece. Kuba is made-to-order in an array of specially made, richly pigmented colors featuring natural variations, making each piece one of a kind.

Its impactful, minimalist design.

Richly pigmented cement.

Handcrafted from high-performance concrete.

Includes custom steel mounting brackets.
