WHAT WE LOVE ABOUT KORA

A streamlined frame and floating design give our Kora vanity an airy look and feel. Because it's wall-mounted, you can install it at any height and use the open floor space underneath for a storage basket, scale, or bath stool. An even more impressive feature: The midcentury-inspired vanity has a fluted, wood-look printed façade in two different pattern options that give it a striking, three-dimensional appearance.

- Easy-to-maintain polished ceramic top with integrated basin
- Visually striking wall-mounted installation
- Two wide storage drawers
- Durable MDF construction with a wood grain finish
